'Dolly Should'

Festival draws crowd to downtown Bay St. Louis

The fourth annual "Dolly Should" festival -- conjunction with the Old Town Merchants Association Second Saturday Artwalk -- brought hundreds of people to downtown Bay St. Louis on Saturday.

The crowd in Old Town Bay St. Louis on Saturday night was bigger, brassier and bustier than ever for the fourth annual "Dolly Should" Festival. Running in conjunction with the Old Town Merchants Association's monthly Second Saturday Artwalk, "Dolly Should" drew a record crowd, despite some wet weather earlier in the day. "It was the best ever," Ann Madden -- who founded the event with her Smith & Lens business partner Sandy Maggio -- said. "We had a blast. The after-party (at the 100 Men Hall) was a wonderful extender and we've only heard good things." Dozens of people showed up at the Mockingbird Cafe in Dolly Parton drag on Saturday, and a total of 42 people registered for the Dolly look-alike contest, Madden said. The first-place winner was Cindy Verré. Second place went to Kookie Baker. Maggio and Madden started the event four years ago because "We needed another iconic female who is really good, and Dolly is perfect," Maggio told reporters Saturday. "She's talented and smart and gives back to the community. We're all about this community." "Thanks for coming," Madden said to everyone who attended. "It was awesome." A portion of the proceeds from the event will benefit Parton's "Imagination Station," which provides free books for children.

Hancock Co. feeling effects from federal shutdown

Hundreds without pay, others without essential services

BY GEOFF BELCHER
NEWS EDITOR

Nearly a month after the partial government shutdown began, it's effect on Hancock County is starting to show.

Lazy Magnolia Brewing Company, which is based in Kiln and is the state's oldest packaging brewery, is already feeling some pain from the shutdown. Like all breweries, Lazy Magnolia must acquire a COLA (certificate of label approval) from the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau before sending its bottled beer to market.

The shutdown "is affecting us, but so far, it's mainly affecting our customers," Lazy Magnolia's Anna Claire Giles said this week. "A lot of our customers, they work out at Stennis, and they've been out of work for a little while, and it is affecting the. We actually have a guy coming in to help us fold boxes who works out at Stennis who has been out of work now for almost a month."

The COLA labels are also a matter of concern, she said.

"We have to get all of our labels submitted to the ATTTB, and they have to be approved for us to be able to put our beers on the shelf," she said, "and right now, that process is at a standstill until the government reopens."

Tish Williams, executive director of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday that there are about 320 people employed by NASA at Stennis Space Center, plus many more who work for other government agencies and private contractors.

While there are no exact figures on how many people are on furlough at Stennis due to the shutdown, Williams said, "We need to come to some quick decisions to bring this to a conclusion. We need to protect the security of our citizens and our country, but at the same time, we need to protect our economy. ... I was recently listening to the chief of the federal reserve, and he said the longer the shutdown continues, the greater the impact it will have on the economy."

Williams said the Hancock Chamber agrees with the sentiments expressed by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, which last week urged "Congress to restore full operation of the federal

BWSD Trustees hear updates

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

The Bay-Waveland School District Board of Trustees on Monday heard several district updates from Superintendent Dr. Sandra Reed and the ATSI School Improvement Plan Progress report from Bay-Waveland Middle School Principal Jenny Seymour.

Reed announced the addition of three new district employees: Jason Mauffray as school business administrator; Aaron Lewis as technology director; and Eric Collins as Bay High School's football coach.

Reed also invited board members to visit the district's weight room at the field house on either a Monday, Wednesday, or Friday between the hours of 1 to 2:45 p.m. Reed said there are about 60 students out there.

"I was out there on Friday and they are truly physically having difficulties even being in the space," Reed said. "We're having some conversation about possibly building a new field house."

During the months of October and November,

MDEQ Awards Solid Waste Assistance Grant to Hancock County

SEA COAST ECHO

Jackson, Miss. -- The Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) awarded Hancock County a solid waste assistance grant of $22,500 that will be used by the county for a solid waste enforcement officer program. "The Solid Waste Assistance Grants support a variety of useful solid waste management activities for cities and counties, and this grant will assist Hancock County's efforts in improving their management of solid waste," said Gary Rikard, MDEQ Executive Director. Cities and counties may apply for Solid Waste Assistance Grants through the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality. These grants are used by local communities for programs to prevent and clean up unauthorized dumps; to aid in hiring local solid waste enforcement officers; for public education efforts on solid waste disposal and recycling; and to establish programs for the collection of white goods, bulky wastes and recyclables. Information about this grant program and other initiatives is available at www.mdeq.ms.gov/solid-waste-management-programs.

MS Sharps Collection Program Reaches Milestone

SEA COAST ECHO

JACKSON, Miss. -- Mississippi's Household Medical Sharps Collection and Disposal Program managed by the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) reached a milestone in late 2018. Altogether, more than 50,000 pounds of medical sharps have been voluntarily collected from the public during the program's nine-year history. It is estimated that 50,000 pounds is equivalent to approximately 7.6 million syringes that were kept out of household trash bags, which prevented needle stick injuries to waste collectors. Medical sharps include syringes, needles, lancets, and other sharp objects used by persons in their homes for self-treatment of health related issues. "The growth of this program has surpassed expectations to the point that Mississippi has more household medical sharps drop-off locations per capita than any other state in the nation. Reaching the collection of 50,000 pounds is another indicator of success, and we look forward to exceeding these totals in the future," said Gary Rikard, MDEQ Executive Director. Before MDEQ implemented its voluntary program in 2009, there were few options for disposing of medical sharps. The Mississippi State Legislature, with input from MDEQ and others, adopted laws that provided for a voluntary medical sharps collection program for the proper disposal of sharps. In the past nine years the program has gained 354 drop-off locations statewide including local pharmacies, most Walgreens and Fred's pharmacy stores, and several municipal fire stations. MDEQ encourages Mississippi residents to properly dispose of their sharps and use drop off the containers rather than tossing them in the trash or flushing them in toilets. Information on the program and drop off locations can be found at mdeq.ms.gov/medsharps.

Chancellor Margaret Alfonso's investiture set for Jan. 18

SEA COAST ECHO

An investiture ceremony for Chancellor Margaret Alfonso will be held Jan. 18 at 3 p.m. at the Harrison County Courthouse, 1801 23rd Avenue, Gulfport. The public is invited. Rep. Sonya Williams-Barnes will serve as mistress of ceremonies. Speakers will include Bishop James Black, Pastor of the Faith Tabernacle of Praise Church in Biloxi; Rev. Paul Springer, Pastor of Pentecostals of the Gulf Coast in Biloxi; and Rev. Tony Karnes, Pastor of Michael Memorial Baptist Church in Gulfport. Soloist will be Jeff Harrison. Harrison County Justice Court Judge Dianne Ladner will administer the ceremonial oath. Judge Alfonso took the oath of office Jan. 2 to begin her judicial term. It is traditional to hold a formal investiture at a later date. A reception will follow at Alfonso Realty on Lorraine Road in Gulfport. Judge Alfonso previously served for 12 years as a chancellor -- from January 1999 through December 2010. She was the first woman to be elected chancellor in the 8th Chancery District of Hancock, Harrison and Stone counties. She was elected to the Harrison County Court bench and served as a Youth Court judge from January 2011 through December 2018. She was elected again to the Chancery bench in November 2018.

Her earlier public service includes Harrison County Family Court prosecuting attorney 1980 -- 1983; assistant district attorney for the Second Circuit District of Harrison, Hancock and Stone counties, serving 1984 -- 1987; and assistant county prosecutor for Harrison County, 1988 -- 1992. She also previously served as an assistant state's attorney for Cook County, Ill. Judge Alfonso is a founding member of Professionals Advocating for Children Together, PACT, which was organized in 2002 to work on behalf of abused and neglected children. She was instrumental in creating a position of public guardian in 2002 in Harrison County to protect the interests of indigent minors and the elderly. She initiated the first Adoption Day for Harrison County in 2004. She serves on the Mississippi Access to Justice Commission, and she recently completed a two-year term on the Drug Courts Advisory Committee. She served on the Media and the Courts Study Committee in 2002, helping shape recommendations for camera coverage rules adopted by the Supreme Court in 2003. She served on the Commission for Study of Domestic Abuse Proceedings, which made recommendations to the Supreme Court and the Legislature in 2008. She received the Mississippi Bar's Judicial Excellence Award in 2010, and the Public Citizen of the Year Award from the National Association of Social Workers Mississippi Chapter in 2012. She is a Fellow of the Mississippi Bar Foundation. She received the Alonzo Westbrook Public Service Award, John Mason Award from the Gulf Coast Victims' Right Coalition for Advocacy for Victims, and the Award of Excellence presented by the National Association of Legal Professionals. Judge Alfonso graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, and she earned her law degree from the University of Mississippi School of Law.

MDOT continues the fight against human trafficking

SEA COAST ECHO

JACKSON, MISS.--- The Mississippi Department of Transportation (MDOT) has joined various agencies across the state and country to recognize January as Human Trafficking Awareness Month. Human trafficking continues to be among the fastest-growing crimes nationwide. Many government agencies are stepping forward to enhance awareness of issues and implementing methods to combat this increasing problem. The National Human Trafficking Resource Center (NHTRC) reported 24 cases of some form of human trafficking in Mississippi in 2017 and an alarming 4,460 cases of human trafficking in the United States. Many victims of this crime are not in one place long enough to form social connections and are often transported throughout the country in commercial motor vehicles. MDOT's Office of Enforcement plays a critical role in combating this issue and uncovering these victims. Since 2015, in coordination with Gov. Phil Bryant's Human Trafficking Task Force, all MDOT Enforcement Officers have been trained on how to identify and police human trafficking on state highways and at weigh stations. Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery in which traffickers profit from the control and exploitation of others. Traffickers use force, fraud or coercion to control victims for the purpose of engaging in commercial sex acts or labor services against his/her will. Human trafficking affects individuals across the world, including the U.S., and is commonly regarded as one of the most pressing human rights issues today. "MDOT's Office of Enforcement is combating this terrible crime year-round," said Melinda McGrath, P.E., MDOT executive director. "MDOT's officers are trained to know what to look for and how to help victims when found."

The public can report information about a potential trafficking situation by calling the National Human Trafficking Hotline toll-free at 1-888-373-7888. Anti-Trafficking Hotline Advocates are available 24/7 to take reports of potential human trafficking. Anonymous tips can also be submitted online at www.humantraffickinghotline.org or by emailing help@humantraffickinghotline.org. Participate in the discussion on social media by using the hashtag #endtrafficking. The Mississippi Department of Transportation (MDOT) is responsible for providing a safe intermodal transportation network that is planned, designed, constructed and maintained in an effective, cost-efficient and environmentally sensitive manner. MDOT's objective is to maximize taxpayer's dollars by providing a safe, efficient multimodal network that enhances economic stability and growth. For more information, visit GoMDOT.com.

Hancock County NAACP Celebrates Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Weekend

SEA COAST ECHO

Citizens of the Hancock County community and surrounding areas are invited to join the NAACP in celebrating the legacy of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Holiday Weekend, January 18-21.

Jeramey Anderson, Mississippi State Representative, District 110, will deliver the keynote address at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Banquet on Saturday, January 19th. This event will be held at the historic 100 Men Hall in Bay St. Louis, Ms.

Representative Anderson was elected to the Mississippi State House in 2013 as the youngest ever African-American candidate to be elected to any legislative body in the United States. Additionally, he was honored during the opening session of the United Nations as one of the world's most influential people of African descent under 40. He currently serves as House Minority Secretary.

In 2018, Representative Anderson won the democratic primary in June for the office of U.S. Representative for the 4th Congressional District. He vows to continue his fight for the many issues concerning Mississippians. Among those issues are increased minimum wage, child care, education and affordable health care.

The 2019 theme of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Banquet is "Commemorating the Legacy." This event will be a catered gala affair, featuring live local talents from area churches, and presentations of the 2019 NAACP Black Excellence Award and Community Service Award. The Black Excellence Award is given to an individual who has demonstrated significant achievement in the field of education. The Community Service Award is given to a citizen of Hancock County who has exhibited long-term commitment mentoring the youth in social development, education and character building. The suggested banquet attire is dress to impress.

Other activities scheduled for the weekend are as follows: A Prayer Breakfast will be held on Friday, January 18th, beginning at 7:00 a.m. at the First Missionary Baptist Church, 256 Sycamore Street, Bay St. Louis, under the direction of Reverend Al Jenkins. A children's program will be held at St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church on Sunday, January 20th, beginning at 4:00 p.m., followed by a Fireworks Show, sponsored by Powerhouse of Deliverance Church. The Fireworks will take place at MLK Park, Bay St. Louis, starting at 6:30 p.m. The celebration will culminate on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Monday, January 21st with a celebratory march. The march will begin at 9:30 a.m. from MLK Park, Bay St. Louis and will progress down Washington Street to the Powerhouse of Deliverance Church, where a program under the direction of Bishop Jeffrey Reed, will be held commemorating the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The program will begin at 11:00 a.m., followed by a reception.

The community is invited and encouraged to attend the MLK Celebration Banquet and all scheduled events for the Holiday Weekend. For information, or tickets to the banquet, please call 228-669-4400, or 228-342-5172.

100 Men Hall to host People Project

SEA COAST ECHO

The 100 Men Hall will host a photography project called The 100 Men Hall People Project for one week in February during Black History Month.

The 100 Men Hall invites the public to stop in and have their photo taken in a photography project that seeks to strengthen the heritage identity between the community and the historic 100 Men Hall.

This project is made possible in part by a grant from the Mississippi Gulf Coast National Heritage Area. The Hall has selected fine arts photographer Gus Bennett to photograph 365 Bay Saint Louis and people who have a history with the 100 Men Hall.

The Hall invites any person with a history with the 100 Men

Hall to come have a photograph taken by Gus Bennett starting Sunday, February 10 through Saturday, February 16. The Hall will be open all day during this week and no appointment is necessary.

Gus Bennett is a fine arts photographer who has documented the lives of New Orleans Black citizens for more than 25 years. His most recent series, "The New Orleans People Project," was recognized by the Lieutenant Governor's Office and featured at Essence Music Festival.

Each photograph will include a short text block based on the subjects' memories of and how their identity was influenced by their relationship to the Hall. On completion, these photographs will be shared with the community in the following manner:

- One subject on one day for a year will be displayed on social media, the front marquis, and collected on the 100 Men Hall website and shared with local media.

- Movable kiosks will be installed permanently inside the Hall to display a rotating selection of the photographs with text blocks.

- The 100 Men Hall People Project, and all 365 photographs with their text, will be collected in limited edition bound book.

Bayside firefighters help rescue cat

Cat was 35 ft up in a tree

BY STACEY CATO
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

On Monday, members of the Bayside Fire Department got a call they couldn't ignore.

A fluffy feline, better known as Tupac Shapurr, was found trapped about 35 feet up in a tree, Fire Chief Tony Johnston said.

Although Johnston said the call was a bit unusual, crews didn't give a second thought to helping rescue the beloved pet.

"You could just tell the owner (Sandra Barnard) was full of fear and extremely worried,"

Johnston said. "We didn't care what species of life it was, we just wanted to help, so we did."

Johnston said it's moments like these that make a firefighter's day.

"The look on his owner's face was worth it," Johnston said.

According to Johnston, the animal was found about an eighth-of-a-mile away from his home. It took firefighters about two hours to free him from the tree.

The cat was "a little shaken up," yet unharmed, Johnston said. He and his owner were immediately reunited after the rescue.

MAC Now Accepting Grant Applications

SEA COAST ECHO

JACKSON, MISS. – Jan. 15, 2019 – The Mississippi Arts Commission is now accepting applications for the agency's annual grants program. Operating and project grants are available for organizations and schools, and fellowships, apprenticeships, artist roster and teaching artist roster applications are available for individual artists. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 1, 2019, at 5 p.m.

Grants to organizations fund a broad range of arts projects in Mississippi communities and help non-profit arts organizations maintain financial stability, build organization capacity and improve artist programs.

Funds are also available to organizations for presenting a roster artist or teaching artist.

Grants to individual artists encourage artistic excellence, support the creation of new work, as well as help to ensure the survival of community-based traditional art forms found throughout the state.

Complete grant guidelines and instructions on how to use MAC's eGRANT system can be found on the agency's website at www.arts.ms.gov or by calling (601) 359-6030 for more details.

First-time applicants are strongly encouraged to call and speak with a MAC staff member about their project before submitting an application.

The Mississippi Arts Commission (MAC) is a state agency serving more than two million people through grants and special initiatives that enhance communities, assist artists and arts organizations, promote arts education and celebrate Mississippi's cultural heritage. MAC is funded by the Mississippi Legislature, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Mississippi Endowment for the Arts at the Community Foundation for Mississippi and other private sources.

FRAZER LEA RICE III

Entered into rest November 14, 2018, beloved husband of Beverly (nee Crump) Rice; loving brother of Donna and Nemours Rice; fond uncle of Zachary (Anna) Tuller; great-uncle of June. Frazer Rice was a Navy veteran of the Vietnam War. He was an active member of his church in Western New York and served on the vestry. Frazer was a long-time resident of New Orleans and Bay St.

Louis. He belonged to several British car clubs and enjoyed cruising around in his MGA. An avid music lover, he attended every New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, beginning with the first one in 1970. Frazer, wearing his pith helmet with the solar fan, was often recognized by fellow Jazz Fest regulars. In his younger years he marched with the Lyons Club on Mardi Gras, and never missed the MOMS Ball. Frazer was a kind and generous person, with a great sense of humor, and he will be missed by all who knew him.

Relatives and friends may visit Christ Episcopal Church, 912 S. Beach Boulevard, Bay St. Louis, MS, on Saturday (January 19th) from 12:30 PM-1 PM. Memorial Service will immediately follow. Flowers gratefully declined. Donations may be made in Frazer's name to the Friends of the Animal Shelter in Hancock County, PO Box 2274, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520.

Reed said, the district's average daily attendance counts more as far as the district receiving state funds.

Reed said a concentrated effort was held district-wide to raise the ADA numbers.

Reed said that the district raised its ADA from 93.1 to 96.2.

In a separate matter, Reed gave the board an overview of the PBIS program, a behavior plan training program for students K-12.

"We are recognizing appropriate behaviors kids exhibit at school and then we're taking the areas where they're not exhibiting appropriate behaviors and physically teaching the kids those behaviors,"

Reed said. "What we're finding is that a lot of times, it's not that they don't want to behave, it's that they don't know what the expectation is."

Reed said counselors have taken the lead with this program, which includes learning how to act appropriately on the bus and how to use a "six-inch voice."

Reed also told the board that several teachers submitted and won about $7,000 worth of STEM grants from Ingall's Shipbuilding.

In a separate matter, Seymour provided the board with a monthly update from BWMS about students with special needs.

Seymour said that, in addition to data analysis, the school now offers Tiger Time targeted intervention for all students; additional targeted intervention for students with disabilities;

three days a week after-school programs for students with disabilities; monthly progress monitoring and data tracking; individualized instruction; improved testing accommodations; and the addition of student planners and student IDs.

Seymour also shared students with disabilities STAR data for January.

The last scores were recorded in November, she said.

In 6th grade reading, the average reading scale score is 601, with a growth of 125 from November. The average math scale score is 694, with a growth of 99 from November.

The average 7th grade reading scale score saw growth of 214 and the average math scale score saw growth of 78. The average 8th grade reading scale score saw growth of 178 and the math scale score saw growth of 53.

Hancock County Chamber announces annual meeting, new initiatives for members

SEA COAST ECHO

Hancock Co., Miss. Jan. 15, 2019

Members of the Hancock Chamber and supporters of the Hancock County Community Development Foundation will hold their Annual Meeting on Friday, January 25th at Diamondhead Country Club. Attendees will learn about new initiatives that these Boards and staff are launching to help members reduce costs and grow their businesses. Doors will open at 7:30 a.m. with the program starting at 8 a.m. Tickets and sponsorship packages may be purchased online at hancockchamber.org or by calling 228-467-9048. Tickets cost $35 for members and $45 for guests. A full breakfast will be served. Diamondhead Country Club is located at 7600 Country Club Circle.

"This is one meeting you do not want to miss," said Tish Williams, executive director. "During the joint board's strategic planning session, both organizations endorsed a number of new initiatives that will be introduced to members that are designed to harness the power of the business community—our number one priority this year," said Tish Williams, executive director.

New Programs to be Introduced

Attendees will learn about a new group health insurance program being offered through IIS Benefit Administrators and SouthGroup Insurance Gulf Coast, which will be open to Chamber members. S&L Office Supplies & Printing will announce a new on-line affinity program to help Chamber members save money while supporting the work of the Chamber.

Several other new membership development programs are being rolled out under the chairmanship of Patrick Martinez. Each month, Chamber members will receive timely information to help them grow their businesses through the new Ambassadors Program. To provide additional customer development opportunities, the Chamber is launching a new "Power Hour Series," which will include three monthly sessions at various times and locations. The series will include morning Coffee Calls with elected officials, "Best Practices" sessions at different times and locations, and "Lunch Breaks" at noon at member restaurants. All sessions will provide Chamber members firsthand information as well as tools and connections that are vital to growing their businesses. Starr Chapman of Rum Kitchen will chair the Power Hour Lunch Break Series.

Regan Kane, chairman of the Relocation Committee, will provide details on a new "Parade of Homes" to be held this spring. This will be the largest open house event in Hancock County and will feature established and new homes to give builders, brokers and realtors the opportunity to showcase their homes, floor plans, communities and more. Home builders, subcontractors, material suppliers, specialty trade contractors, lenders and real estate professionals will all collaborate to produce this event. With new homes in a variety of locations and price ranges, Kane says this will be the perfect starting place for anyone planning to buy or remodel a home, or for those who are looking for landscaping and decorating ideas.

Stephen Schruoff, chairman of the Business Retention and Expansion Program, will provide the results from the 2018 survey of business and industry, revealing the latest priorities for the business community. Dr. Adam Breerwood, President of Pearl River Community College will provide an up-date on workforce development initiatives and the status of building a campus at Stennis International Airport.

Continuing Programs

If that were not enough, the Hancock Chamber will continue its work in the area of community development focusing on initiatives to support education, government relations, beautification, and greenways, including the announcement of the coast-wide Regional Transportation Summit this fall. Through these committees and the annual program of work for the Chamber, members will have the opportunity to participate in 150 meetings and events. Members also have access to custom designed Chamber marketing services using digital media resources and sponsorship opportunities.

Passing of the Gavel

Stephen Schruoff of Mississippi Power will pass the Chamber's presidential gavel to incoming Hancock Chamber Board President Nikki Moon of Bay Town Inn to serve in this leadership role for 2019. Leslie Henderson of Lazy Magnolia Brewing Company will pass the chairman's gavel to Angie Kothmann of Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District to serve as 2019 Chairman of the Hancock Community Development Foundation.

SSC wins first tilt over Bay 3-1

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

All season long in the area had been building up to this point since the original first meeting between Bay High School and Saint Stanislaus College was postponed due to inclement weather prior to the Christmas holiday break. That game has since been rescheduled for January 25th.

The two squads met for the first time this school year on the soccer field on Friday, January 11th at SSC which also happened to be Senior Night for the Rocks.

It was a tight game all the way through with the Rocks (11-5-4, 4-0) claiming a 3-1 victory.

The Tigers (9-9-2, 3-1) struck first when Liam McKeown scored on a penalty kick after an infraction was whistled against SSC inside the penalty box with 31:30 remaining in the first half.

Less than two minutes later, SSC's Christian Bourgeois scored when a corner kick bounced out to him and he nailed the shot from 25 yards out.

SSC went up for good 2-1 with a one-on-one opportunity between Alex Koons and the Tiger goalie with 17:15 left in the first half.

The final goal came with 36:45 left in the second half when Koons scored again assisted by Carter Landry.

SSC head coach Danny Patton commented, "We had to come from behind early to take the lead. Once we were able to secure the lead, we settled down and worked hard not to give up silly stuff. Bay High is a very well coached team and they always play each game extremely hard and to the very end. Tonight was no different. We meet each other again in two weeks which is a quick turnaround but neither team had control over the weather that forced the postponement previously."

Also on Friday, Pass Christian (9-2-1, 1-2) beat St. Martin 6-3 in boys action while the Lady Pirates (2-5-6, 0-1) battled to a 0-0 tie.

Hancock battled to a 1-1 tie with Pascagoula while the Lady Hawks (11-4-1, 2-2) beat the Lady Panthers 2-0.

OLA (7-6-1, 3-2) beat Resurrection 2-0 in division action with Olivia Gelpi and Aubrey Wawrek each scoring a goal. Assists were recorded by Gelpi and Allie Gant while Paige Palazzo had the shutout in goal.

In upcoming action, Bay High travels to Long Beach while the Lady Tigers travel to Ocean Springs on Friday,

With the regular season of soccer quickly winding down, the final stretch for basketball is beginning to heat up.

The Bay High Tigers (13-6, 6-0) beat Vancleave 50-43 while the decision in the Lady Tigers' (4-12, 1-3) game is unknown at press time.

The Hancock Hawks split a pair of games with Gautier on Friday. In the boys game, the Hawks (4-14, 0-2) fell to the Gators 57-48.

The Lady Hawks (11-9, 0-2) were able to find a winning formula for a 56-35 victory.

OLA (1-10, 1-3) nipped Perry Central 44-42 for their first victory of the season.

Pass Christian split a pair of games with the East Central Hornets. In the girls game, the Lady Hornets defeated Pass Christian (18-2, 3-1) thanks in large part to a 23-point fourth quarter. The final score was 52-51. In the boys game, Pass Christian (4-15, 2-3) beat East Central 46-41.

SSC (8-13, 3-2) bounced Moss Point 45-44 for their fifth consecutive victory on Friday night. Luke Ladner led all scorers with 14 points followed by Brandon Bordelon and Alexander Fuller with nine points each.

In upcoming action, Bay High will host Moss Point on Friday, January 18th while Hancock will host Harrison Central on Friday. The Crescents host Resurrection on January 21st. The Pirates will host Vancleave on Friday while SSC hosts East Central on Friday before squaring off against Hancock in HoopsFest on Saturday morning. See you at the games!

Research reveals that people are more absorbed and attentive when they read newspaper content.

No matter how The Sea Coast Echo® captures a reader's attention, we are remarkably successful at keeping it. An NRS survey says newspaper readers are more relaxed than TV viewers and radio listeners and less likely to be multi-screening. In fact, the 36 million who pick up a paper spend over an hour reading and don't multi-screen at all. Nothing works like The Echo works.

It was a great day in the Bay

The cold, low water and river water has limited our trips the past few days. We are still getting out a little bit, just having to pick our days. I took a fun bunch of "snow birds". Fishing last week. Matt was from Minnesota and his girlfriend Venla, was from Finland.

They spend enough time in the cold weather. They didn't want to fight the cold, and I didn't mind getting a little extra sleep. We left the dock at 10am. The early morning temperatures were in the 30's. By midday though, it was in the low 50's. This time of year, you really don't need to worry about the alarm clock. The bite got better and better as the temperatures climbed.

They only kept 2 fish,

SHORE THING FISHING REPORT

by Capt. Sonny Schindler

and released many sheepshead, black drum and redfish. The water has been so murky and chilly that the dead shrimp seems to work better than the live. All the fish were holding tight to the bottom.

They kept their catch to bring to The Blind Tiger Restaurant in downtown Bay St Louis. Our charter company and TBT has been doing a "you catch it and we cook it" special for years. I got a message from them a few days later. They were blown away with the fishing, food and our town. These folks were really impressed with Bay St Louis.

They came for the fishing, stayed for the hospitality, and left with some great memories. So Thank You Bay St Louis, it's a pleasure working with you.

As always, have fun and be safe.

Mississippi State University Coastal Research and Extension Center visits the St. Stanislaus Marine Science Program

Mandy Sartain speaks to a Saint Stanislaus Marine Science class about the negative impact marine debris has on the environment.

SEA COAST ECHO

The Saint Stanislaus Marine Science program recently hosted Mandy Sartain, Extension Program Assistant with the Mississippi State University Coastal Research and Extension Center. Sartain spoke to the Saint Stanislaus Marine Science classes about marine debris, the major sources and different types of marine debris, and the impact marine debris has on the environment. Sartain also gave the students ideas on what people can do to help stop the amount of marine debris entering our local ecosystems.

Earlier this year, Saint Stanislaus Marine Science students had started implementing, "It only takes two hands" during fieldwork. Students aren't allowed to return to the lab until they pick up two pieces of trash from our beachfront (one piece of trash in each hand). Saint Stanislaus Marine Science teacher, Mrs. Letha Boudreaux is challenging each Marine Science class to create something that will bring awareness about marine debris in our area. Each Marine Science class working with the Saint Stanislaus Advanced Art class, taught by Mrs. Cathy Lawson, will create a piece to help educate fellow students on protecting our local marine environments.

About Saint Stanislaus Saint Stanislaus, located in Bay St. Louis, MS, is a Catholic residency and day school for young men in grades seven through twelve. The school fosters character formation and integrates faith development within a curriculum that is primarily college preparatory. For more information on Saint Stanislaus, please visit our website at www.ststan.com.

PCES students show love and generosity by donating gifts to the ROCK foundation to support foster children in Harrison County! Each grade level at PCES participated for a week in December by bringing toys and clothes for boys and girls. Our students were excited to know that they were making a difference in the lives of the precious children in foster care. What a wonderful way to teach children the importance of giving and sharing with those who are less fortunate.

Breath's Boats & Motors Named to 2018 Boating Industry Top 100 list

Recognized as one of the top boat dealers in North America

SEA COAST ECHO

Breath's Boats & Motors of Bay St. Louis, MS has been named one of the Top 100 dealers in North America by Boating Industry, the leading trade publication for the marine industry.

"From the thousands of boat dealers in North America these 100 dealers are the best of the best," said Jonathan Sweet, director of the Boating Industry Top 100 Program. "The Top 100 is about more than revenue. While the financial success of the companies on the list is important, we're also looking at factors including overall business acumen, marketing strategies, service department efficiency and profitability, customer service and dedication to the industry. These Top 100 dealers stand out for their best practices in all areas of their businesses."

"Each and every day our dealership aims to provide the best products, service, and customer experience for our boating community. Breath's Boats & Motors is honored to be among the industry's elite dealerships in North America for seven consecutive years", says company president John Ladner.

The Top 100 is the only independent ranking of boat dealers in North America.

The list recognizes dealerships that are unsurpassed in business operations, professionalism, marketing tactics, customer service and more. The Boating Industry Top 100 has recognized the top dealers in North America every year since 2005.

"This year's Top 100 is stronger than we've ever seen in the history of the program," Sweet said. Total revenue for the 2018 Top 100 dealers and Hall of Fame was at its highest level in the history of the program, topping $3.5 billion.

Become a Master Gardener

SEA COAST ECHO

The Master Gardener volunteer program is a great way to gain horticultural expertise at a low cost, meet other avid gardeners, share gardening experiences, get connected to the community, and belong to a well-respected and educational organization. It is an educational exchange program offered through county offices of the Mississippi State University Extension Service. Through this program, individuals are trained and certified in horticulture and related areas. Topics covered through the Master Gardener program include basic plant biology, landscape design, lawn maintenance, managing insect and disease pests and many more.

In exchange for educational training, individuals are asked to volunteer their time to help county Extension offices with horticulture and education projects that benefit the local community. Master Gardeners help extend the educational arm of the university to the public by providing horticultural information based on university research and recommendations.

The Hancock County office of the Mississippi State University Extension Service will be offering training courses for anyone wanting to become a Master Gardener. The 2019 Master Gardener training classes will begin Thursday, March 7th. Classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for five weeks.

There is a $100.00 fee to pay for the materials used during the training. You can get a training schedule and more information about the Master Gardener program by contacting the Hancock county Extension office at (228) 467-5456 or by email at C.Stephenson@msstate.edu.

The deadline for registration for this program is Wednesday, February 13th.

The government's business is your business.

And Mississippians count on their newspapers to keep apprised of public notice advertising.

Half of Mississippi adults recall reading or seeing public notice advertising in a local or state newspaper.

And almost half (46%) of adults who have seen public notice advertising prefer to receive them in a printed newspaper, much higher than any other source.

Most Mississippians (87%) say keeping the public informed through public notices and legal advertising is an important requirement for government agencies. And the preferred method of receiving these notices is in a printed newspaper along with their associated websites.

Arts Institute Opens Call for 2019 AIM Awards Nominations

SEA COAST ECHO

The Arts Institute of Mississippi (AIM) at The University of Southern Mississippi is accepting nominations for the 2019 AIM Awards, which seek to recognize and honor high school level arts teachers, schools, and organizations that are making an impact through exemplary achievements in arts education throughout the state of Mississippi.

The 2019 AIM Awards mark the 2nd year in which exceptional individuals, schools, and organizations will be honored for commendable service to students and/or community within Mississippi.

“The AIM Awards serve as an incentive for the continued pursuit of excellence in arts education,” said Dr. Jay Dean, executive director of AIM.

“Last year’s award recipients set the bar high with their achievements.”

These included:

- Angela Heise, Art Teacher/Fine Arts Department Chair at St. Martin High School
- Jennifer Butler, English Teacher at Pass Christian High School
- Carrie Culpepper Brown, Dance Teacher at McComb School District
- Pierrdro Gallion, Director of Choral

Activities at Murrah High School

- Ida Mitchell, Director of Bands at the Stone County School District
- Jorge Gonzalez, Strings Program Supervisor at Hattiesburg Public School District
- Suzanne Allmon, Theatre Director at Oak Grove High School

Any member of the public can nominate high school level arts teachers and directors, schools, or organizations for this award, or they can nominate themselves.

Qualified nominees include those who have enhanced education in, and through the arts; made significant contributions to students, school, or community; and improved Mississippi through teaching, performance, or other exemplary service.

Those eligible to receive the award are involved in the arts disciplines, including creative writing, dance, media, music (bands, orchestras, choirs, and other musical ensembles), theatre, and visual arts. In addition, private teachers can be nominated.

The judges will select recipients, from each discipline, who best meet the following criteria: excellence in arts education; extent to which this individual or organization has had a profound and enduring effect on arts education; and the extent to which this individual’s or organization’s work enhance(s) the school’s and/or community’s image.

Nominations must be submitted by Feb. 15, 2019.

Judges will evaluate the materials and notify the recipients by March 15, 2019.

To learn more about the award criteria and to submit your nominations visit usm.edu/arts/aim-awards.

About The University of Southern Mississippi

Founded in 1910, The University of Southern Mississippi is a comprehensive doctoral and research-driven university with a proud history and an eye on the future.

A dual-campus university, Southern Miss serves students on campuses in Hattiesburg and Long Beach, in addition to five teaching and research sites in Mississippi and through Online at Southern Miss. Since 2006, our students have collected three Truman Scholarships and 18 National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships. USM students also lead Mississippi with 21 Goldwater Scholarships, an honor that recognizes the next generation of great research scientists. Our Drapeau Center for Undergraduate Research affords our students meaningful research opportunities, and as a proven leader in innovation, we conduct transformative research that translates into real-world solutions.

As one of only 36 institutions in the nation accredited in theatre, art and design, dance and music, we are a haven for creativity and artistic expression.

In the classroom or lab, on the playing field, or in the performance hall, we strive to have a positive impact not only on our students, but also the world around us. Further information is found at usm.edu.

A Valentine's Evening to Remember

SEA COAST ECHO

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will present the annual Valentine show with an evening of love songs, dramatic readings of love poems, and romantic skits. Spend the evening with the one you love dining, dancing, and romancing.

On Thursday, February 14th, the Little Theatre will transform into a dining venue to create a Valentine evening to remember. This will be an evening for golden anniversary couples to first date couples.

Love songs will be performed by Ten North Fredrick performers, Lex Mauffray, Cathy Henley,

Bill Myers, and Cheryl Grace. They will perform love songs throughout the evening. Dramatic readings of classic and contemporary love poems will be performed throughout the evening by local actors, Clayton Pennylegion, Lana Price, Paul Bernard, and Cheryl Grace. Romantic skits performed by Jim Duggan, Alrie Poullion, and Jen Coulter are added to the evening to bring a smile to your face.

Fine dining will be catered by the highly touted Lulu's of Bay St. Louis. Menu details are provided on the Little Theatre website.

Reservations are going fast. Seating is limited. Show starts at 7pm. Theater doors open at 6:15pm. $105 per couple and $55 per person. Call 228-467-9024 or go to www.bsllt.org to make your reservation.

This will be the evening to remember. This will be a Valentine's experience that everyone would love to share with the love of their life.

Blue My Mind evolvulus is Miss. Medallion winner

DR. GARY R. BACHMAN
MSU EXTENSION SERVICE

Many home gardeners look forward to this time of year to browse catalogs in search of great new plants to enjoy in their 2019 landscapes.

The group of plants I get excited about each year are the Mississippi Medallion selections. Every year, I promote this group of plants through Southern Gardening so you will look for them at local garden centers.

The Mississippi Medallion winners for 2019 are Whopper Begonia, a collar green, Blue My Mind Evolvulus, Nyssa sylvatica and Sweetie Pie blackberry. I'm going to highlight each plant individually this year.

Since it was established in 1996, Mississippi Medallion has recognized more than 70 great landscape and vegetable plants. The program was established by the Mississippi Nursery and Landscape Association in cooperation with the Mississippi State University Extension Service and the Mississippi Department of Agriculture and Commerce. It increases awareness of plant materials and promotes the sale and production of ornamental plants in Mississippi.

Compared to national campaigns such as All-American Selections and Perennial Plant of the Year, Mississippi Medallion focuses on plants adapted to Mississippi's environment to benefit both consumers and the green industry.

2019 marks the second time in Mississippi Medallion history that an evolvulus has been chosen. This year it is Blue My Mind.

The first evolvulus was Blue Daze, which has been around for a long time and was one of two plants chosen as the first Mississippi

Medallion winners in 1996. Blue Daze has fantastic, true-blue, funnel-shaped flowers. I like the fast-spreading growth rate that makes Blue Daze a good ground cover in front of an Indian hawthorn planting in my front landscape.

As good as Blue Daze is, there's an even better evolvulus choice for 2019. Blue My Mind is a fantastic improvement of Blue Daze evolvulus. The individual flowers continue to be funnel-shaped, and they always form near the shoot tips. Blue My Mind is a prolific bloomer. Its foliage has a downy appearance, and the 1-inch flowers are sky blue.

The flowers only open for one day. They are brilliant blue in the morning but look quite spent by afternoon, especially in planting beds that face west and receive a high heat load each afternoon.

I've grown Blue My Mind in my landscape as an evaluator for the past three years. I can attest that a little afternoon shade helps ease the summer heat load, but too much shade reduces total flowering.

Blue My Mind and Blue Daze need to be planted in well-drained soil that is consistently moist. Be sure to maintain fertilization to keep the flower production at its peak. I like using water-soluble fertilizer along with the irrigation.

As you shop this spring, be on the lookout for this great plant. You can ask your favorite garden center now to make sure they will have these plants available for your landscape.

SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE'S
NOTICE OF SALE

WHEREAS, on August 6, 2008, Mark E. Ireland and Kelyn K. Ireland executed a Deed of Trust to Lyle M. Page, as Trustee for the benefit of The Peoples Bank Biloxi Mississippi, Beneficiary, which Deed of Trust is recorded in Book No. 2008 at Page 31572, in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Hancock County, Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, The Peoples Bank Biloxi Mississippi, substituted Robert T. Schwartz of Biloxi, Mississippi, in the place and stead of the said Lyle M. Page named as Trustee in the above described Deed of Trust, which substitution of trustee is recorded in the office of the aforesaid Chancery Clerk in Book 2017 at Page 25412; and

WHEREAS, default having been made in the terms and conditions of said Deed of Trust and the entire debt secured thereby, having been declared to be due and payable in accordance with the terms of said Deed of Trust, and the legal holder of said indebtedness, The Peoples Bank Biloxi Mississippi, having requested the undersigned Substituted Trustee to execute the trust and sell said land and property in accordance with the terms of said Deed of Trust for the purpose of raising the sums due thereunder, together with attorney's fees, trustee's fees and expenses of sale;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert T. Schwartz, Substituted Trustee in said Deed of Trust, will on the 24th day of January, 2019, offer for sale and will sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, within the legal hours (being between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.) at the main front door of the County Courthouse at Bay St. Louis, Hancock County, State of Mississippi, the following described property situated and lying in the County of Hancock, State of Mississippi, to-wit:

A certain portion of ground located in Hancock County, Mississippi, in an area bounded by Camellia Street, Larkspur Lane, a canal and Oleander Street in Square 10, Unit 2, SHORELINE ESTATES SUBDIVISION. Said portion of ground is designated as Lot 24 and a portion of Lot 25 and is described as follows:

Beginning at a 1/2" rod found at the Southwest corner of Lot 24; thence go North 06 degrees 36 minutes 54 seconds West along the East R.O.W. line of Camellia Street a distance of 36.02 feet to a 1/2" rod found; thence go North 22 degrees 57 minutes 50 seconds West along the East R.O.W. of Camellia Street a distance of 32.85 feet to a 1/2" rod found; thence go North 71 degrees 10 minutes 21 seconds East a distance of 170.56 feet to the canal side of a concrete bulkhead; thence go South 16 degrees 56 minutes 32 seconds East along said bulkhead a distance of 67.19 feet to a point; thence go South 75 degrees 36 minutes 24 seconds East along said bulkhead a distance of 15.63 feet to a point; thence go South 16 degrees 11 minutes 38 seconds East along said bulkhead a distance of 44.74 feet to a point; thence go South 87 degrees 01 minutes 44 seconds West a distance of 191.91 feet to the POINT OF BEGINNING. All of which is shown a survey by Lester H. Martin, Jr. dated July 5, 2006 and contains 16.385 square feet.

The company does not insure the square footage or acreage of subject land. Such references are for descriptive purposes only. The sale will be made subject to all prior encumbrances of record, including (but not limited to) that certain Deed of Trust in favor of the Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration, an agency of the Government of the United States of America recorded in Book 2006 at Page 17391, amended and increased in Book 2006 at Page 41203.

I WILL CONVEY only such title as is vested in me as Substituted Trustee.

WITNESS MY SIGNATURE, this December 21, 2018.

MSU Extension soil testing lab offers new services

MS. KERI COLLINS LEWIS MSU EXTENSION SERVICE

STARKVILLE, Miss. -- The Mississippi State University Extension Service Soil Testing Lab has new equipment that allows it to offer an expanded range of services to clients. A new carbon and nitrogen analyzer tests both soil and plant tissue. The new instrument adds soil nitrogen tests to the list of services offered by the Extension Soil Testing Lab and streamlines the process of obtaining soil organic matter and plant nitrogen analyses. Clients can now choose several different tests. First is the standard soil test for $8. A test for both soil and organic matter costs $10. For $4, clients can order a test for organic matter and soil nitrogen only, excluding the standard soil test. The plant tissue test remains $15 per sample. Soil tests are useful for clients interested in improving crops, lawns, home gardens and wildlife food plots. Optimal pH and soil fertility are critical to obtaining maximum plant growth and economic yields. Soil tests take the guesswork out of fertilizer and lime applications. Reducing excess fertilizer application saves money and prevents the environmental impacts of nutrient runoff. Forms, fee information, an online payment option and an instructional video for taking a soil sample are online at <http://extension.msstate.edu/lawn-and-garden/soil-testing>.

THE SEA COAST ECHO
YOUR LOCAL NEWS SOURCE SINCE 1892

IT'S NOT JUST A SAYING...THE PROOF IS IN BLACK AND WHITE.

1. any circulating medium of exchange, including coins, paper money, and demand deposits.

Who wants to hear that? Probably no one. The truth hurts.

You need to Know Your Audience. While younger Americans aren't the newspaper readers that their parents and grandparents are, print still offers a way of reaching key demographics. According to a study prepared for the Newspaper Association of America, 65.6 percent of respondents read the newspaper at least once in the past week, and that number rises to 72.6 percent of adults aged 55 and over. Print media is accessed by both genders, with 60.8 percent of each having read a newspaper over the past seven days. If those figures match your target marketing audience, it makes sense to use print to reach them.

Location, Location, Location... Location can't be stressed enough. Newspapers offer the ability to target your ads to better reach a specific customer base. For example, if you're selling sports equipment, advertising on TV during the NFL playoffs is likely cost-prohibitive and may reach many viewers with no intention of buying your wares. A small advertisement in your local sports section has the potential to catch the eye of football fans in your area, getting the local sports fans attention at a fraction of the cost. Make sure your ad is in the right spot in the paper. You're likely to have better luck selling musical instruments in the entertainment section of the paper than in the business or food sections.
